

Arizona Association of Crime Analysts

Wednesday, August 18, 2010
8:30 AM to 2:00 PM
Prescott Valley Public Library
7401 E. Civic Circle
3rd Floor, Crystal Room
Prescott Valley, AZ 86314

AACA Quarterly Meeting August 18, 2010

“COMPSTAT Success Stories;
Crime Reduction and Quality of Life
Improvements”

Host:
2010-11 AACA Board;
Prescott Valley Police
Department

RSVP:
<http://www.aacaonline.org/rsvp.html>

Agenda

| | | |
|---|--|----------------------------|
| 1. Registration & Refreshments | Networking | 8:30 – 9:00 AM |
| 2. Welcome and Opening Announcements | Mike Winslow, 2010-11 AACA President; Prescott Valley Police Chief Jim Maxson | 9:00 – 9:15 AM |
| 3. Laura Vittorio , “Targeted Operational Planning” (TOP) in the Tucson Police Department. | Laura Vittorio, Tucson Police Department | 9:15 – 10:00 AM |
| BREAK | | 10:00 – 10:15 AM |
| 4. Judy Fernandez , “Tactical Analysis of the Craigslist Robber Series.” Tactical crime analysis techniques and effective communication with other agencies led to the accurate identification and intervention of the next hit in the Craigslist Robber Series in April 2009. Hear the story and see the analytical and investigative process that resulted in the successful arrest and conviction of the suspect. | Judy Fernandez, Gilbert Police Department | 10:15 – 11:00 AM |
| 5. Mike Sechez , Resources available to law enforcement to help locate anybody anywhere. Enhance your COMPSTAT reports with timely information on series’ suspects. | Mike Sechez, Yavapai County Attorney’s Office | 11:00 – 11:45 AM |
| Working LUNCH from the Texas Roadhouse (information below) | | 11:45 AM – Lunch is served |
| 6. John Dempsey and John Vivian , “COMPSTAT for Juvenile Corrections.” The Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections has taken the COMPSTAT process and applied it to juvenile corrections. The resulting violence reduction strategies are using real-time data and cross-disciplinary teams to develop plans that promote institutional safety. | John Dempsey and John Vivian, Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections | 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM |
| 6. Mike Winslow, Scottsdale Police Department. 2010 AACA Training Symposium, “Innovations in Analysis and Research” update | Mike Winslow, AACA President | 1:00 – 1:15 PM |

| | | |
|--|------------------------|----------------|
| 7. AACA Wrap-Up and Round-Table: AACA Board Members will discuss www.gotomeeting.com , the new logo possibilities and any open issues from members | AACA Board and Members | 1:15 – 2:00 PM |
| 8. AACA Quarterly Meeting Concludes | | 2:00 PM |

Additional Information

Directions: Take I-17 North towards Flagstaff. Merge onto AZ-69N via Exit 262 towards Prescott. Turn right on N. Windsong Dr. Take the Third Left onto E. Lakeshore Dr. Then take the First Right onto E. Civic Circle. The Library is the “big building in the middle of the field. There is plenty of open parking around the building.

Optional Lunch: To maximize our members’ time, we will have a “working lunch” delivered from the Texas Roadhouse. When you RSVP at <http://www.aacaonline.org/rsvp.html>, please indicate whether or not you’ll be ordering lunch.

For just $7 (payable at the door), you will get a chilled soda pop, soft-baked cookie, pulled pork sandwich, a legendary side-dish like mashed potatoes or fresh vegetables and a buttered roll.

Or if you wish, brownbag lunch and enjoy your own granola bar and apple.